

2006 Numbers Behind the Show

1989	The first year of the Northwest Flower & Garden Show
415,000	The rocks and boulders placed in the elaborate display gardens each year by Marenakos Rock Center weigh this many pounds total. Some boulders weigh in excess of 7,000 pounds (3½ tons) each!
12,759	The number of hotel room nights that were booked as a result of the 2005 show
$620,000+	The amount of money the Show's Preview Party has raised since its inception to support the 230-acre Washington Park Arboretum
60	The number of dump trucks filled with fill dirt and mulch that Sawdust Supply will bring into the Convention Center to form the foundation of the display gardens
70,000+	Visitors expected to pass through the gates this year
139	Number of free seminars and workshops at the 2006 Show
350	Exhibitors at the Show this year
9,210	Visitors who attended the show more than one day
3½	Days that show garden creators have to turn their flat, cement space into a garden paradise
300	Estimated number of people who work night and day to set up the Show's beautiful display gardens
78.8	Percentage of people that were repeat visitors at the 2005 Show
96	Percentage of attendees who are NOT expert gardeners
1	The Northwest Flower & Garden Show's ranking as the largest spring flower show on the West Coast!